Description:

This SEB announces the removal of S&EP Leaflet 13/2017 - The DE&S Way for System Safety and System Environmental Protection. The update comes into effect immediately.

Background:

Following recent updates to ASEMS a review of S&EP Leaflet 13/2017 has been completed. Following this review, it has been found that the majority of information available within the Leaflet is now available within the main body of text of ASEMS.

Headline changes are as follows:

The section covering System Safety and System Environment training courses is the only information not currently available within the main body of text of ASEMS. As part of the removal of Leaflet 13/2017 updated information regarding available training courses has been added to GMP03 – Training and Awareness at 3.1.2.3. ensuring all information within the Leaflet becomes available in the main body of text. A training matrix giving further details of available training is currently under development and a link to this information will also be added to GMP03 once available.
